We manufacture our headboards in a wide array of styles and can manufacture custom-specified products in various wood species, fabrics, and materials.

HEADBOARDS

Made Beautiful

All Northland products are built to the designer's specifications while maintaining high commercial construction and durability standards.

Headboards are made in an almost endless variety of styles to match any specification.

Northland is a leading manufacturer of American-made casegood furniture. Our headboards are made with the same standards our clients have come to expect with all our products. And, our attention to detail goes beyond our products with high-touch service, on-time delivery, and follow up after the installation.
